Our wonderful Pennsic 40

By Baroness Una

What a wonderful war Baron Vlachus and I had this year. Although we had a bit of a rocky start to our trip to Pennsic, once there everything fell right into place.

We were lucky enough to have 3 of our newer members of the Barony travel with us this year. Aethyn, Trahaern and Rhuah. They all had a great time, and I am hoping they will share some of their stories with us.

The Barony had a very full camp this year with roughly 144 people. The first three days were spent assembling the front of camp with many trips back and forth to the storage trailer. A very special thanks to Duke Brannos, Robert and Kiaus for taking care of land, layout and camp set up. This was the first time Vlachus and I saw the new camp showers that Sir Donas built for camp. Wow, they are roomy and nice to take a shower in. I loved that they were painted to look like a roman bath house.

We spent much of the first week of war relaxing, visiting friends, and working on projects in camp. Once middle Saturday was upon us, our newer armored fighters headed out to the list field to fight in the Known World Novice Tourney. LeBref, Beline, Jayson, Trahaern, and Aethyn all took the field to fight. Each did a wonderful job on the field showing great honor, and prowess to each fighter they spared with. Lord Aethyn was given a special award for the extreme chivalry he displayed on the field and was gifted a favor and a blade.

On Sunday we marched with our Baronial Cousins for the first time during opening ceremonies accompanied by our Baronial Champions Bear, Fearghas and Finn. I must say, it was a bit strange not marching out with House Darkyard, but very awesome at the same time. I will leave it to those who participated in the marshaled activities to give all of you recaps on how each battle went. Our Barony fought hard for the whole war. Despite our Kingdom not winning, each fighter did their job to the fullest and made us very proud of them.

On Tuesday night of War week we held a Baronial Court. It seems as though I have a bit of a problem with saying "umm" a bit too much, and the members of the Barony tried very hard to break me of this habit during court. Thank you all for the great laughs that ensued over it! It will be a very long time before I ever forget this court.

Baronial Court offered us the chance to recognize some of the wonderful members of our Barony.

Receiving Wastrals (beyond sanity service award)
Taran, Beline, Aethyn, Trahaern and Finn

Receiving the Solaris (great skill in arts and sciences award)
Countess Aihbilin for garb making

Receiving the Eddingtons Cross (showing greatness in marshaled activities award)
Robert Ap Llywelyn

Receiving the Chalice (significant and extended service over time award)
Kazmir

Receiving the Cupbearer (recognizing lives that have been dedicated to growing the Barony)
Baron Garrahan and Baroness Aimee

A special token was given to all those armored fighters that were brave enough to go out to the woods battle (and not scared of the poison ivy) and a special token was given to the cooks of Starleaf Gate for the party they hosted in honor of Lebref being taken on as a squire by Sir Ragnar.

Just after the last battle on Friday, Havard was placed on vigil for the Order of Chivalry by Their Majesties and Baron Vlachus received the Gold Mace. The day before House Darkyard and the Legion received yet another Dragons Teeth for their amazing actions on the battle field.

Our camp closed out Pennsic with the Darkyard war pay ceremony and toga party. Saturday morning started with a rush to tear down camp, then the packing to head home. It was a great Pennsic war. To much fun was had, and many great stories will come of it.

Here are my favorite highlights.

- Our youth Champion Finn and his brother taking me out shopping as my official Baronial Guards.
- Having Fearghas and Bear take the field and honoring the Barony in the Fencing and Armored Baronial Championships.
- Trahaern saying “and their spear guys were opened up to us and it was like AHHHHWWW, and we took them out).
- Havard hugging Brannos after he was placed on vigil.
- Aethyn and his ability to receive so many nick names in just 2 weeks.
- Blue and his wonderful morning coffee.
- The laughing, the hanging out by the camp fire, spending two weeks with the greatest people in the world!.....
